

NORWOOD MEDICAL CENTRE NEWSLETTER SEPTEMBER 2019

We are sorry to say that our Managing Partner, Caroline Lee, will be leaving us in September after almost 18 years. Her successor, Alison Redshaw has been working alongside Caroline for the last 12 months to ensure a smooth hand-over.

We are very pleased to say we have 2 new doctors starting in August:

Dr Crease who was our GP registrar will be a salaried GP 3 days a week for 6 months and Dr Ryan Ashworth will be a salaried GP 4 days a week, hopefully becoming a full partner after around a year.

Sadly Dr Hameed and Dr Haque will not be doing regular locum work with us now that we have made these appointments.

We also have 2 new learner GPs starting in August, Dr Rebecca

Sherratt who has been with us before will be with us part time for the next 18 months, and Dr Leah

Hawkins will be with us until December.
